“ Uncle Barry was awesome! He could make us laugh within the first minute of walking in the door. Always happy and ready to do anything with us. He could carry a great conversation whether he just met you or not. He wouldn't miss a beat to offer you a drink, snack, or to hear a funny thought.

From when we were little - going to visit in Philadelphia house hanging out in the man cave den with that magic floating pitcher on the wall pouring water and what we thought were magical talking walls, surround sound tv speakers he installed in the ceiling... to sleeping over the campground in Ocean View going to the lake, pool, and roasting marshmallows in the campfire, we always had a really fun time with him! We looked forward to Irish festival, polar bear plunge, and anytime at the shore knowing Barry and Jane would always come meet up with us!

Barry was so fast to crack a joke even in his toughest time, he was always light spirited. I'll never forget the last few words he said to me before he passed, of course it was something funny, but whats most important I will never forget the memories of him. They were all great, funny, and happy. Rain or shine, it was always great weather to hang out with the family!

Uncle Barry we will miss you deeply and we love you! Rest In Peace!

Love,

Your Niece

Rebecca
