“ Cathy was my neighbor while my children were growing up.. we did a lot together in those years with her grand daughter Erin and my children.. I will never forget when we came across the bunny rabbit, she loved that rabbit April bunny, many a days with the kids taking walks to find fresh clover for April bunny, she loved her grand children to the moon and back that is without a doubt.. we had coffee every single night for years on my front porch or kitchen, she was a good friend and very good to my children growing up, we lost touch after we moved away, but her love and help to myself and my children will never go out of our hearts and memories, you were a very good person and will be missed, until we meet again Cathy love and prayers for a safe journey home. “ It's hard to believe she is not going to be answering my "what's a four letter word for _____" anymore. I could always count on her to know where everything was on sale! We called her mom-mom fuji-ama because she was never without a camera for any event. She will be missed so much. Peace be with you Cath.

“ I loved Aunt Cathy and she loved her family. It didn't matter if you were just popping in on your way to the beach or on your way home she always welcomed you in her door (as long as you left your sandy wet clothes outside). Visits with her were often quick as she was always getting ready to go somewhere to do something with Erin or Jarred. My favorite times with her were I was a little a girl and Grandmom would have to go check and make sure that Aunt Cathy put her top on so we could go play with her on the beach. I didn't realize until I was an adult that she had been sunbathing topless I always thought that Grandmom didn't want us seeing her in a bathing suit since every time we finally got on the beach to play with Aunt Cathy she either had on a tshirt or a terry cloth jumper
