“ I just wanted to express my condolences to the family of this sweet man. I didn't know him all that well but he has been a customer of mine for a little over a year. I was the groomer of his beloved poodle. I met Frank and his lovely wife at the CMC animal shelter, back when he was first looking to adopt a dog. They searched high and low, and when they finally found one they loved, they trusted me to make her look pretty. And so i did. Despite not knowing him all that well, what i could see from where i stood, was that he had a huge heart. He always scheduled our appointments around his wife's doctors appointments and their commitments to the Church. I actually was just thinking of reaching out to him the other day, then i stumbled across his Obituary. Im sorry for your loss. Frank you will be missed.

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many mansions; if that were not so, I would have told you, I am going there to prepare a place for you. I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am." John 14:1-3

“ To Uncle Frank:
You were a person who enjoyed bowling and playing golf. He was a very good bowler who bowled for one of St Michael's three bowling teams for many years. We always had good times when we bowled each other and will be sorely missed.
God bless, Edith and Harry

“ I have so many great memories of Uncle Frank ,most of, which revolve around food and travel. I'll always remember how much he enjoyed our trip to Boston and Nantucket .We took the T to Fenway and ate at a Buffett on Nantucket that he always claimed was the best he every experienced. Coming from Unk that was very high praise .

He also loved Phillips in Ocean City Maryland. He started off with 3 dozen oysters and didn't stop till he sampled everything that ran or swam on the menu. Then he just had to sample rhe individually made pasta. He may have been a featherweight but he ate like a heavyweight

However, of all the places we visited his favorite trip was to San Fransisco. Everywhere we went or ate was his new favorite. He never found anything negative to connect with the city or our trip. I guess you see the pattern here. If the food was good and the company was also Uncle Frank was a non stop smile.

As someone who didn't have a lot of family Uncle Frank was a welcomed addition to my life. Though I was his nephew by marriage;he always treated me like blood. In fact he treated me almost like a son. If not for him I'd still be ignorant to the joys of south philly in particular Claudio's and Mara's Pizza. Both will be fabrics of my life forever as will he. I'll miss him as long as I live and that sorrow will always be with me.The only way this pain could have been avoided would be by never have had him I n my life.That option would have left me with a greater loss than what his passing has done.

As long as I live Uncle Frank will live in my heart . Till we meet again .

Love Joe Harrigan
