

Mildred Howe

May 30, 1928 - September 16, 2020

HOWE (nee Simmons), Mildred M. – 92, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, September 16, 2020. Mildred has been a resident of Cape May, NJ since 2013 and was a former longtime resident of Warren, PA where she and her late husband, Frank, founded Howe's True Value Hardware Store, a business that they operated together for 60 years, retiring in 2000 (officially selling the business in 2015). She enjoyed many things in her full life; specifically, sewing, quilting, bingo and most of all, simply LOVED time with her family. She is predeceased by her husband, Frank and her three siblings, Helen "Dolly" Causebrook, John "Fitz" Simmons and Kenneth "Kenny" Simmons. Mildred is forever loved by her family which includes her three children, Keith "Luke" (and Mindy) Howe, Harry Howe and Karen (and John) Zigler; four grandchildren, Tracy, Nathan, Sarah and Jacob; five great grandchildren, Luke, Jack, Elise, Giacomino and Ethan. She also dearly loved her four-legged friends, Grizzly Bear and Belle. Mildred will be interred with her husband Frank in Warren County Memorial Park, Warren, PA. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are suggested to Paws Along the River Humane Society, 212 Elm St., Warren, PA 16365 or Warren Area Student Union, 330 Hickory St., Warren, PA 16365. “ Remember your Mom and Dad very well when building our house and buying supplies at Howe's, then Luke, Karen and Harry.
You and your family have our sincere sympathy.
No one can take away fond memories of both your parents.
Sincere Sympathy,
Fred and lovena D. Rulander
